

Answers to Verb + -ing or verb + infinitive – exercises

1. Check your grammar: grouping – verb + -ing or verb + infinitive

+ -ing e.g. I suggested going ...	+ infinitive e.g. I suggested to go ...
enjoy	decide
look forward to	invite someone
avoid	need
stop	plan
finish	promise
mind	want

2. Check your grammar: multiple choice – verb + -ing or verb + infinitive

- | | |
|-------------------|----------------------|
| 1. to seeing you | 5. coming here |
| 2. to tell anyone | 6. to be eighteen |
| 3. to call Dad | 7. to give Mum |
| 4. doing | 8. doing my homework |

3. Check your grammar: error correction – verb + -ing or verb + infinitive

- I'd really love to see you again.
- We've decided to go to Turkey for our summer holidays.
- I'm not looking forward to going to the dentist.
- Please remember to give your keys to your brother. He needs them.
- You're going to need to buy some new pens – you've eaten the ends of these ones!
- Oh, I hate having to get up early on a Sunday. or Oh, I hate to have to get up early on a Sunday.
- What do you want to do later? There's a good film on at the cinema.
- I'd offer to lend you my bike, but I need to use it tomorrow morning.