I need to buy a tin of sardines

- * Countable nouns are words like car, book, and chair.
- * They are the names of things that you can count: you can say "one car", "two books"...
- * They can be singular (a cat, a book) or plural (two chairs, lots of books)
- # Uncountable nouns are words like rice, smoke, sugar, water.
- * These are things that you can't count: you say "smoke" but not "one smoke".
- Uncountable nouns are only singular.
- A) Put a "C" for Countable and "U" for Uncountable.
 - ☀ Tea
 - * Pencil
 - * Furniture
 - Bicycle
 - Beauty
 - Turnips
 - * Money
 - * Dish
 - 🗮 Sugar
 - Rice
 - * Dress
 - * Advice

B) Choose an appropriate noun + of to indicate quantity.

Cup slice packet pocket bottle jar bar glass

Example: biscuits / three – three packets of biscuits.

- * Bread / four ______
- * Coffee / two ______
- * Soap / two _____
- * Cake / tree _____
- * Meat / two ______
- Sugar / tree
- * Milk / five _____

C) Look at the Picture and write complete sentences using phrases of quantity:

Example:

I need to buy a tin of sardines.

- _____
- _____
- ----
- 禾 _____
- _____
- *****
- *
- *

*	I need new car.
*	I never drink coke.
*	Mary isold friend.
*	She was wearing blue jumper.
*	The table is made of glass.
*	I often listen to music.
*	The police are looking for him with dogs.
*	My room has got really big bed.
E) Put i	n a / an or one.
*	She's got nice skirt.
*	She's only got coat.
*	Can I have boiled egg?
*	No, I said egg, not two.
*	I've got problem. Can you help me?
*	She's only got child.
*	boyfriend is enough.

D) Put a / an or nothing (-):