

I Complete the sentences using the words in the box (nouns and adjectives).

hazard	hazardous	risk	risky	infection	infectious
anger	angry	dirt	dirty	poison	poisonous

- There's a high risk of another accident happening in this fog.
- Can you tell the difference between poisonous mushrooms and edible ones?
- Just put the dirty dishes in sink, and I'll wash them up later.
- White blood cells help defend the body against infection.
- These chemicals are hazardous to human beings.
- Space travel is full of hazards.
- An infectious disease can spread rapidly between people.
- I think he feels a lot of anger towards his father, who treated him very badly as a child.
- It's risky to buy a car without some good advice from a mechanic.
- I don't understand what he's angry about.
- He killed himself with strong chemical poison.
- His coat was covered with dirt.

II Complete the sentences using the words in the box (nouns and verbs).

erupt	eruption	pollute	pollution
produce	production	damage	damage

- The company says it is not responsible for the pollution in the river.
- Most of Mars surface was shaped later by meteorite impacts and volcanic eruptions.
- The pesticides used on many farms pollute the water supply.
- We watched a video showing all the stages in the production of glass.
- Violence erupted in the city on Friday night.
- Many buildings were badly damaged during the war.
- Strong winds had caused serious damage to the roof.
- France and Italy are the countries that produce a great deal of excellent wine.

III Make the second conditional sentences.

- If I were (be) you, I wouldn't take (not/take) that job.
- She 'd call (call) him if she had (have) his number.
- If we weren't (not/be) friends, I 'd be (be) angry with you.
- If he were (be) younger, he 'd travel (travel) more.
- If she weren't (not/be) always so late, she 'd be (be) promoted.
- If we won (win) the lottery, we would travel (travel) the world.
- You 'd lose (lose) weight if you ate (eat) less.
- If I didn't speak (not/ speak) perfect English, I wouldn't get (not/ have) a good job.
- If we lived (live) in Mexico, I 'd speak (speak) Spanish.
- If she were (be) happy in her job, she wouldn't look for (not/look for) another one.
- They 'd have (have) more money if they didn't buy (not/buy) so many clothes.

IV Reflexive pronouns. Write the correct form to complete the sentences.

- The young man cut himself while he was learning fencing.
- "Have a nice stay and enjoy yourself."
- Sometimes famous people try to kill themselves.
- I have been living by myself since I went to England.
- I hope the team fans behave themselves after the game.
- We blamed ourselves for what happened during the race.
- Teenagers think they can look after themselves.
- "Please, Jeff behave yourself ! You are not a little child anymore."
- He was so in love that he decided to introduce himself to her at the party.
- "My mother is worried about my sister because she has been living by herself since last month."
- Mia's dog looked at itself in the mirror and started to bark.

V Second conditional. Make the sentences using the pictures as clues.

We would get (get) there quicker if we  took a taxi.

If you  went to bed earlier, you would feel (feel) better.

I  would save some (more) money if I were (be) you.

We  would buy a new house if we had (have) more money.

If you  stopped smoking, you would feel (feel) better.

If I were (be) you I  would buy a new computer because yours is quite old-fashioned.

What would you do if you  were alone (found yourself) on the desert island?

If I  saw a shark, I would be (be) terrified.

He  would go sailing if he could swim.

VI Warnings and advice-complete.

- 1 The wasp could/ might sting you .
- 2 The water could drown you .
- 3 The iron could burn you.

- 4 The lorry could run you over.
- 5 The matches could burn you.
- 6 The cat could scratch you.